tation Council (NAAC), delivered the convocation address. The rank holders and Ph.D graduates were awarded in person. Dr Ishari K Ganesh, founder-chancellor of VISTAS, presided over the convocation.

"If we have to excel in life, criticism alone is not productive and you need to go beyond it. As graduates, you need to find solutions to all possible issues," said Chauhan speaking at the event. He added that the mission of a university should not be only creating employable graduates but a place that helps students develop the capability to think critically.
