6. Grievance Redressal Mechanism

If a staff member has a grievance, it is better to sort it out by writing to, or meeting the concerned HOD. After giving sufficient time to the HOD, remind him/her to expedite the matter. In case the grievance remains unresolved, there is an Institute grievance committee, to whom one can refer them. Suggestion boxes are placed at various location to vent out grievance .On-Line grievance reporting provision is enabled in the Website of the University for open and transparent communication. Open door policy is practiced to vent out the grievance with all top management.

HoDs will function as Grievances Officer who will coordinate and administer the grievance handling process. The Staff Grievances Redressal Committee will be responsible for addressing all the grievances submitted to the Grievance Officer. The committee will refer cases, if required, to the Dean and the Dean shall address the grievance in such cases. In cases where the VC's intervention is required, the Dean may forward the grievance case to the VC/Registrar. The VC will be the final authority on all grievance matters of staff and Officers.

7. Prevention of workplace Harassment

Behavior in all interactions with colleagues must be impeccable. The Supreme Court of India defines sexual harassment as unwelcome sexual behavior, whether directly or by implication, such as through

- (1) Physical contact and advances.
- (2) Demand or request for sexual favors.
- (3) Sexually colored remarks (this includes colored jokes in a mixed company, or even within hearing distance of a female member of the community).
- (4) Showing pornography.

Any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature. Except where such an act amounts to a specified offence under the Indian Penal Code (which then has to be dealt with by the Police under applicable law), a victim of sexual harassment (or one who perceives sexual harassment to oneself) may lodge a complaint to ICC directly or through the department Heads or to the Registrar. Any employee can approach the Internal Complaints

Committee constituted by the Institute, either for advice or for redressal.

An inquiry by the ICC has the status of an official inquiry under the Civil Service Rules, and employees have to co-operate with the Committee in its investigations.

8. Right to Information

In 2005, the Indian Parliament enacted a legislation known as the Right to Information (RTI) Act, which empowers a citizen to get any information from the Government or from any publicly funded institution.
