

As I eagerly anticipate the upcoming college gathering, my thoughts fondly drift to the indelible impact my professors had on my educational journey. Their guidance transcended the classroom, shaping not just my academic pursuits but also fostering a spirit of curiosity and resilience. The echoes of their wisdom resonate in my professional endeavors at the Chennai corporation, where the lesson learned under their tutelage continue to influence my path with a sense of gratitude and determination. Each interaction with my professors remains a cherished thread in the intricate tapestry of my college memories, a testament to the lasting impact of their mentorship.” Also very grateful to VELS for this opportunity to express my gratitude!.
